December 10, 1925 - July 29, 2011

CATHERINE VERNETTE BRISCOE, daughter of the late William and Hattie Briscoe, was born in Baltimore, Maryland on December 10, 1925. She was the sixth of seven children and from early childhood, everyone called her Tina.

In her early years, Catherine attended public schools until she reached high school at which time she was enrolled in Saint Frances Academy. At a young age, she developed a meaningful approach to gaining knowledge about subjects of interest to her. She was a prolific reader and alert student. At Saint Frances, she participated in several school activities. She was a member of the basketball team, a drummer in the school band and played trombone in the school orchestra. She was known to accomplish assigned tasks with care and enthusiasm.

A devout member of St. Veronica Roman Catholic Church, Catherine was a charter member of the parish. She was active in many areas of the church's missions including as a teacher of Sunday school, a member of the Parish Council, a Lector and an Extraordinary Minister of the Eucharist. In her spare time, she enjoyed working crossword puzzles.

Catherine had a variety of employment experience including working for Westinghouse, the Afro American Newspaper and the United States and the United States Post Office. Her hopes in later years were affected by illness.

Sharing a home with her devoted sister Irene, with whom she lived since childhood, they were a constant source of love and encouragement for each other. Their devotion and regard to each other helped to overcome adversities. Catherine will be remembered for her service and concern for others.

Catherine will be fondly remembered by her loving sister, Irene; a brother, Thomas Herman; a son, Michael; and other relatives and friends.

“ Please accept my sympathy for your loss. During this time, may be comforted by the wonderful promise expressed at Revelation 21:4: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more. Neither mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."
