

Catherine Vivian Brown

June 10, 1952 - May 1, 2012

Catherine Vivian Morgan Brown was born June 10, 1952 in Richmond, VA to the late Jack Morgan, Sr. and Lillian C. Gillus Morgan. After a long illness, she was called into peaceful rest on May 1, 2012 and was granted her angel wings.

She was joined in wedlock at an early age with Sherman White Sr. and to this union LaSonya and "Chuck" were born. Catherine attended Richmond Public Schools, and continued her education with an Associate's Degree at J. Sargeant Reynolds Community College. She began her career in nursing at Richmond Community Hospital and worked at several hospitals in the Richmond area over the years. Having been surrounded by five loving brothers, she was attracted to and knowledgeable of major sports. In her past-time, she would enjoy watching basketball and football, rooting for her favorite team and debating which team was the best with her brothers and anyone else who joined the debate.

Her parents were devoted church members and instilled a loving, Christian atmosphere in their home. At an early age, Catherine became a member of Grace Institutional Baptist Church, sang in the choir and was active in various ministries. Catherine had a personal relationship with her Lord and sought strength and comfort in the knowledge of His unwavering love. When her health began to decline, she relished and appreciated those who came to minster to her. She found great strength from this fellowship.

Catherine leaves to cherish her memories, her daughter LaSonya V. White; son Sherman (Chuck) White; a sister, Esther Doretha Atkins; five brothers: Jack Morgan, Jr. (Lena), Melvin "Tim" Morgan, Milton 'Tom' Morgan, Carlton L. Morgan (Helen), and Steven

D. Morgan (Carolyn); seven grandchildren: Donte, LaMar, Chamia, Destiny, Tonette, Jayla and Marquis, as well as a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. Because of the wonderful love she shared, she will never be forgotten and will always be in our hearts. We are so fortunate to have had her in our lives and we feel empty without her.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be "a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

“ To Sonya And Chuck (Sherman) my adopted sister brother and friends. sorry to hear of your loss she was a good person. I remember when we all lived in Essex she could get on us for doing something she thought we did but she also made us laugh too. Its hard losing a parent. But know she will live in you. She'll be there even if you think she not, no you will not see her but feel her presence. when it get hard or when you want to cry she will tell you she is there you will miss her but remember the times you had. God will get you all through this. Im not going to lie it doesnt get easy. it only get acceptable, but you'll see her again. take care of each other now. you need me i will be there some how. i love you both always. God Be with you. To Cathy's Family:

I will remember the happy times that Cathy and I shared in elementary and junior high schools. I will remember the times we sung together in the school choir. I will remember the singing group we had with her rich alto sound. I will definitely remember her beautiful smile & dimples. I know that she is now resting well with our heavenly father.
