

Catherine Clayton

January 4, 1947 - November 26, 2013

Catherine Clayton was born on January 4, 1947 in Baltimore, Maryland. After ongoing obstacles of sickness, she departed this life on November 26, 2013.

She was educated in Baltimore City Schools. After graduating from Eastern High School, Catherine attended teacher's college. She was reared as a child in the church. Catherine often shared her memories of being in church with her grandmother, Willie Mae Mills.

Catherine joined the working world at a young age, working different jobs in hospitals, retail stores and with AA. Before illness left her no longer able to work, she did teaching at her children's school. She loved teaching and babysitting.

Catherine's life was spent raising her children and she with great pleasure took on the role of mom, guardian, mentor, godmother and teacher to numerous kids and young people. Becoming a mom, grandmother and godmother were her proudest and greatest achievements.

Some of mom's favorite times were any gathering with family and friends. She loved going to all gatherings and being first to arrive.

Mom loved watching movies, her DVD's and soap operas. We will always laugh remembering her spade/poker games. All who loved mom (aka "Cat") will remember she made the absolute best turkey salad.

Sharing and cherishing Catherine's memories are: her parents, Charles and Flora Holmes; her children, Bobbie, Stacey, Tracey, Mark (Jeanette), Donnell (Anita) and Jay (Tarsha); her siblings, Diane, Gail, Willie Mae, Clarence, Chavelle; special cousin, George; her grandchildren, numerous nieces and nephews and a multitude of godchildren (she loved children).

Mom shared and cherished her "circle sisters", Sandra, Cynthia, Joyce, Sharon, Gladys and Gloria. Several extended families will share in missing mom. Kim Lee and family, Kim Randolph and family and Angie and family and many lifetime friends.

“ I am so very sorry for your loss and I hope that your family can take comfort from the Bible's promise that soon God will wipe out every tear from our eyes and even death will be no more (Revelation 21:4). Other scriptural passages that you may find comforting are Job 14:14,15; Psalms 94:19; Isaiah 25:8; Acts 24:15.

“ In these troubled times, we all face storms. There are economic hardships, depression, failing health, the loss of a loved one in death - such tempests assail all of us at one time or another, and we cannot avoid them. It moves us to see persons who appear quite frail show surprising strength and endure such onslaughts. Often faith is a key (James 1:3). Another key is hope (1 Thessalonians 4:13), there is the hope of the resurrection (John 5: 28, 29; Acts 24:15). This knowledge gives us hope, that hope, in turn, gradually softens grief. It helps us to endure. You can find more encouraging Scriptures @ www.jw.org. May God continue to comfort your family in this stressful time of need.

“ Our family would like to express condolences to your family. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's Word The Bible. He assures us 1 Corinthians 15:26 that "the last enemy death will be brought to nothing."

“ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is such a hateful and ugly event. But God's words in the Bible give us future hope at Isaiah 25:8 where HE promises to wipe away our tears and swallow up death forever. May you find comfort from God's words in the Bible.
