

Catherine Colbert

May 8, 1926 - May 17, 2002

Catherine L. Colbert, daughter of the late Gunther and Annie Davis was born on May 8, 1926 in Bishopville, South Carolina. She departed this life on Friday, May 17, 2002 at the Heartland In-Patient Hospice Unit at Northwest Hospital. She received her education in Bishopville, South Carolina. In 1947, she joined her heart to Jeff Jackson, Sr. and gave birth to four children, Patricia, Belinda, Janice and Jeff Jr. In 1958, she met and married James Colbert and traveled with him during his Air Force assignments. "L.C.," as she was known by her numerous friends, relatives and acquaintances, was a person of fun and excitement. She loved people and people loved her. "Momma," as her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren knew her, was always the center of attention. She especially loved her grandchildren and great-grandchildren as her "children." No matter what, they could do no wrong. She smiled upon the joys and triumphs of her children. However, when her "children" did wrong or messed up, she was known to say, "They ain't no good, but I love em". Momma was a fighter. Thirty-three years ago, a physician gave us little hope for her survival. God and His "Awesome Ways" gave her a New Hope raising her up to live whole again. Loving life and living it fully, she often said, "I love the Lord. Thank You, Jesus" and left this life to live with Him. She leaves to cherish her memory: her two daughters and two sons-in-law, Patricia and Michael Page, and Belinda and Frederick Houston; one son and daughter-in-law, Jeff and Bernice Jackson (one daughter, Janice O. Simpson left this life heaven-bound on May 16, 2001) Also left to cherish her memory are: ten grandchildren, ten great-grandchildren, one great-great-grandchild; two brothers, Cleve Davis and William Davis of South Carolina; numerous other relatives and friends including a stepbrother, Joe. In All Things Give Thanks!
