Obituary

In Loving Memory

Catherine Logan Cooley

“The righteous perish, and no one takes it to heart: the devout are taken away, and no one understands that the righteous are taken away to be spared from evil. Those who walk uprightly enter into peace; they find rest as they lie in death.”

(Isaiah 57:1-2)

Catherine Logan Cooley was born on July 19, 1934 in Buckingham County, Virginia to the late Fletcher and Nellie Logan. On Thursday, May 3, she was called home to the gates of heaven to have eternal life.

Catherine received her formal education in Buckingham County Schools in Buckingham County, Virginia. She furthered her education at Maggie Walker High School in Richmond, Virginia.

Catherine accepted Christ as her Savior at an early age. She was a faithful member of Moore Street Baptist Street for over fifty years. There, she served as an usher on the Willing Workers Usher Board.

Catherine Logan was united in holy matrimony with Joe Wayne Cooley, Sr. right after high school in Richmond, Virginia in her pastor's study. Their union was blessed with one child. She was formerly employed by the Federal Reserve as a clerk for twenty-seven years. Before working at the bank, she was a waitress at the Marriott Hotel.

In her leisure, she enjoyed sewing, watching her favorite game show, the Wheel of Fortune, socializing and spending time with her grandchildren. Mrs. Cooley was a kind and loving woman who was always willing to help someone in need.

She leaves to cherish her memory husband, Joe Wayne Cooley Sr.; son, Joe Wayne Cooley Jr. (Gloria); grandchildren, Logan Corinne Cooley and Bryan Joseph Cooley; brother, Joe Logan; sister-in-law, Odean Hill (Charles); and a host of nieces, nephews, and her other relatives and her dearest friend, Edith Pace.

NOTICE of Address Change

Dear family and friends, please be advised that I have moved. I had a call from God, the Chief Architect, the other day and he informed me that my new home was complete. You all know I had been working on my building, sending up timber, packing up and getting ready to go. I knew my mansion needed some finishing touches and the Chief Carpenter, Jesus Christ had to inspect it and give the final approval. On May 3, 2018, He let me know I could now move in.

My new home is a sight to behold, located on an exclusive estate behind a beautiful pearly gate, just over the side of a celestial shore. Yes, the streets are paved with gold and every day is Sunday, just like we have been told. I lived down here, for many years, this is so much better. There is peace and happiness up here, I pray you get here yourself one day. Let me give you my new address.
