

Catherine E. Horne

May 3, 1930 - April 1, 2008

On April 1, 2008 Catherine's battle was finally won. She heard from her Almighty saying, 'my faithful servant, job well done. I require not that you endure the pain and suffering of this world any longer, for today is your graduation and I shall reward you.' Catherine Jones Horne, the widow of the late Robert L. Horne, left for her deserved reward. She had been ill for several months. She was born May 3, 1930, one of seven children of the late Godfrey and Melissa Jones, in Columbia, S.C. She grew up in Colonial Heights, where she received her early education. She later attended Brooker T. Washington High School, in Columbia, S.C. As a young adult, she moved to New York and later resided in Baltimore, where she met and married Robert L. Horne. Her entire work life was in data processing in New York and Baltimore. One brother and three sisters preceded her in death. Surviving are her daughter, Yvonne D. Thomas of Baltimore, MD; brother, Robert. Jones, sister, Sarah J. Broadwater of Columbia, S.C.; three grandchildren, Colvin Vincent Thomas, III, Timothy Thomas and Doniell Thomas; three great-grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Tribute Wall

“ Catherine E. Horne

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ *It is indeed with deep sorry I send this message of condolence!
Been pals every since she came to Balto. and married Robert & we lived near each other near Sinclair Lane. She's in a better place now, no more aches or pains. GOD BLESS YOU ALL!
GRACE##imported-begin##Grace Young Jones##imported-end##*

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ May GOD continue to bless and keep the family. Keep the faith and the LORD will see you through blessings from the Hawthorne Family.##imported-begin##Laurie Hawthorne##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ *Dear Family, I know its difficult letting your loved one go. Please remember that the eternal God is our Refuge and underneath are the Everlasting Arms. He's able to comfort you. With much love!
Martha Baker##imported-begin##Martha Baker##imported-end##*

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Dear Family, My condolences goes out to you. May you find comfort in God's promises at John 5:28,29 and Revelation 21:3,4. Please take the time to read those promises and find a measure of comfort during this time of bereavement.##imported-begin##Vanessa Adams##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Hell ! Horne's ! I am so sorry for you all recent loss of Ms. Catherine. Living for 78 years is marvelous. We will be over joyed when there will be no more dying or pain or tears again as the bible say at Isa 25:8, Rev 21:3-5. I am so looking forward. I hope these few thoughts will be uplifting to read and share.##imported-begin##I.C.##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I send my deep sympathy. I hope that you find much comfort and strength from God to carry you through. One day sickness and death will be a thing of the past. Even though it is the way of things now, death was never a part of God's original purpose when he created Adam and Eve; yet his purpose has not changed. One day all will be able to live eternally in paradise conditions. A comforting thought concerning this is found at Rev 21,4 which says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. "The former things have passed away." Please use the bible as a source of comfort, because it contains the words of life that we can put faith in.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM