

Catherine Elizabeth Spriggs

January 26, 1926 - August 29, 2003

On Friday, August 29, 2003, God looked down from heaven and saw that Catherine Elizabeth Spriggs had been a good and faithful servant. He said "Well Don," and gave her due rest after a lengthy illness. She entered this life on January 26, 1926 as a gift to her parents, the late Charles and Frances Spriggs, of Elkridge, Maryland. Catherine was one of nine children. She was educated in the St. Elizabeth Catholic School. Grandma "Cat," as her grandchildren fondly called her, was known as an excellent cook. Her specialties were sugar cookies, barbecue chicken with the "secret" sauce, and her famous homemade pound cake. She also played basketball at school and when gathering with the family enjoyed watching her favorite NBA team on television. While living in Baltimore, she joined The Immaculate Conception Catholic Church and was active until her health failed. Her family was her pride and joy. She will be deeply missed. She leaves fond and cherished memories to : her only devoted son, Ronald Taylor; daughter-in-law, Muriel; two granddaughters, Cathy and Kristen; eight great-grandchildren; one sister, Laura Rideout; brother-in-law, Thomas Phiffer; a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
