

Catherine Freeman

January 31, 1928 - October 10, 2005

Catherine Freeman, daughter of the late Nellie Doswell and Stanley Johnson, was born on January 31, 1928 in Annapolis, Maryland. In the early morning of October 10, 2005, the hands of our Almighty God touched the soul of Catherine and took her home. Catherine received her education in Annapolis, Maryland public school system. She came to Baltimore, Maryland where she met and married the late William Freeman in 1948. There were no children from their union. However, Cat had a very big heart and opened her doors to anyone that needed her. After the death of Isabell Johnson, Catherine raised Isabell's three children as her own. Helen Kamara, Richard Johnson, and Patricia Johnson. Catherine worked as a domestic engineer for many years where she touched the lives of many families. Catherine joined Southern Baptist Church. She was a faithful member and attended church regularly, because she loved the Lord. She was a Pastor's aid until her health prevented her from doing so. Catherine leaves to cherish a devoted family:

Granddaughters, Tracha Johnson, Tonia Kamara, Darcell Johnson and grandsons, Kevin Harris and Donnie Fleming. Great grandchildren, Shantell and Shaporche Harris, Camara Nesbit, Jordan Dantzler, Tyler O'Neal, Kaiyanna and Da-Nya Fleming. Great-great grandson, Kevin Harris and cousin Molly Holland of Annapolis, Maryland. A host of special people who considered Catherine their grandmother, Robin Hugley, Tiffany Brown, Shellie Branch, Latisha and Katrina Tucker, Nevelyn Bennett, Precious King, Tanedra Lyles, and a host of other family and friends.

“ I would like to send my condolences at a time of much heartache and grief. I pray that the comfort of God will bring the healing to all those affected over this lost. How blessed we all are to know despite the painful effects of death our God Jehovah have promised a relief from our enemy death. Rev. 21:3-4 states death will no longer exist and will no longer cause mourning nor out cry or pain anymore. He say's death will be swallowed up according to Is. 25:8-9. However Jehovah's greatest promise he say's, the dead will live again according to Is. 26:19. That is truly a wonderful hope. Our very loved ones lost to death will live again. Yes their state is temporary like a sleep.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
