“ This is your first nephew Mark Anthony Green I love you more than you'll ever know. I will never forget you. I still have a Bible that you gave me in 2003 and you wrote something in it to Mark Anthony Green and Family my first nephew like a son Christmas 2002 a happy healthy and wonderful New Year 2003 in a much-welcomed season of what has to come Happy Spring to follow the brutal and trying winter of 2003 love Aunt Catherine. Aunt Catherine never had children but she was like a mother to me she helped raise me she took me to plays The Sound of Music she did a lot of things with me. As a kid I can remember when Christmas time came around she never bought me toys she always bought books which I wish I still had and educational stuff.. and of course it' as a kid I never understood that but now I do. I love you Aunt Catherine

“ My thoughts and prayers are with the family.
I met my good friend over 50 plus years ago.
I met Catherine Green from another good friend Brenice Johnson and three of us
Enjoyed listening to good jazz and latin music.
She was a very positive and joyful person
That push my daughter Wanda to become an author.
I am mighty thankful for the blessing she has been and her legacy will cont to push me to be my best ever.
RIH
Love your life long friend,

“ I would like to send deepest sympathy to the Green family. Ms.
Green and I met over 20 years ago at a State of Maryland agency where we worked . She became my mentor as I matriculated my undergrad and graduate degree . Her influence and straight forwarded approach helped me to grow and develop into the professional I'm today . In fact, her Social Work skills was an asset to the State of Maryland and all of those whom she served . She will be truly missed.
