

Catherine B. Harley

January 23, 1923 - July 21, 2013

CATHERINE BERNICE (DAVIS) HARLEY departed this life on Sunday, July 21, 2013. She was born on January 23, 1923, the daughter of George Davis Sr. and Elizabeth (Dangerfield) Davis, at the old Johns Hopkins Hospital.

She was educated at the Paul Laurence Dunbar High School through the tenth grade, leaving to work at Western Electric Company. There she met her future husband and life-long partner of sixty years, Oscar Harley Sr. They were separated in 2011 when he died after a long illness. There were two children that preceded them in death, Mrs. Sylvia Thompson and Mr. Oscar Harley Jr. Now they are once again reunited in the Heavenly Kingdom.

Catherine and Oscar were devoted members of the historic Perkins Square Baptist Church where they served as deacon and deaconess until their declining health forced them to take a less active role in their parish.

Deaconess Catherine leaves to mourn: her two dear sisters, Mrs. Lucille M. Gaines and Mrs. Lillian F. Jackson; two dear brothers, Mr. Herman Davis and Mr. James (Irvin) Davis; a grandchild and a host of nieces, nephews, as well as her church family and dear friends.

“ I extend my condolences to the family of Catherine Harley. May you find comfort from the God of all comfort, who helps us cope with our grief. The Bible promises at Revelation 21:4 - "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Psalms 37:9,10,11,29 helps us appreciate that we will have an opportunity to see Ms. Harley again in the coming paradise on earth. I hope that these scriptures provide comfort for you and your family.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.

Sister Harley was a very active member of Naomi Grand Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star. I will always remember her beautiful smile and our conversations as she waited for her husband to complete his masonic duties at The Most Worshipful Hiram Grand Lodge. You rarely saw one without the other. I am sure that they are united once again and that Sister Harley can be heard singing her favorite song. R.I.P.
