

Catherine I. Smith

December 22, 1913 - March 6, 2005

Catherine I. Smith, daughter of the late Delphine Curtis and Milton Brooks, was born on December 12, 1913 in St. Mary's County, Maryland. She departed this life on March 6, 2005. Catherine graduated high school at the age of eighteen. She became employed at Fat Boy's restaurant, where she was gainfully employed for many years as a cook. She was a lifelong member of St. Cecilia Catholic Church where she was a member of the Ladies of Charity organization. She married Milton M. Smith, and out of this union seven children were born, Catherine Elizabeth, Milton Thomas, Delphine Agnes, Michael Andrew, the late Helena Veronica, Edward Joseph, and Cecilia Mae. Catherine made numerous friends wherever she went. Catherine was a pillar of her community and a mother figure to those who knew her. Catherine always had a generous nature and kind heart about her towards everyone who was blessed to have known her. She was a true friend and devoted mother and wife, and was always there for every family member when they needed her to be. She leaves to mourn her three sons and three daughters, grandchildren and great-grandchildren, nieces and nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. The Bible also promises that we will be able to see our dead loved ones again by means of a resurrection. (John 5:28,29) It is my hope that this scripture comforts you.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##
