“ I send my heartfelt sympathy to the family at this time. The death of a loved one is a truly devastating event, and we all long for an end to sickness and death. This is why in the Lord's prayer we pray for God's kingdom to come, and God's will to be done on earth, Just as it is in heaven. When God's will is done on the earth, then there will be no more people dying; there will be no more crying, because our enemy death will be no more, according to 1st Cor 15:26. Notice the beautiful promises at Rev 21,4 "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. "The former things have passed away. Notice the wonderful words of Isaiah 65:17: "And here I creating new heavens and a new earth, and the former things will not be called to mind, neither will they come up into the heart." So when all sickness and death and tragedy is gone, that scripture is letting us know that we will even forget this past life. These tragic things will not even come up into our hearts anymore. May those bible promises bring you much comfort, and the strength to cope with your loss.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
