“ Grandma, you are so deeply missed. Every morning I still look through the door into your room, wishing I could see you like I did before I started work — reminding you that you were going to be late for work (our inside joke). We spent so much time talking about the news and crafting, and I loved asking you about the flowers in the yard — their names, when they would bloom, and what colors they would be. I never imagined in a million years that I would lose you, because you were such a fighter. Grief comes in waves, and when it hits... it really hits. But I will keep visiting you and Grandpa like I always have. I carry you with me every day. I love you and miss you more than words can say.

“ To the Robinson-Martin Family, I send my condolences and prayers for your strength even here after. I just learned of Mrs. Catherine's passing this morning in conversation with her niece, Nette. I can remember Mrs. Catherine and her husband coming to Hollywood, SC to visit her sister Mrs. Nell, whom was my neighbor. And I must say it was a joy to know them and I'll definitely hold onto those memories and cherish them.

Family trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not into your own understanding, God sticks close to the broken heart.

“ *But they that wait upon the LORD
Shall renew their strength;
They shall mount up with wings as eagles;
They shall run, and not be weary;
They shall walk, and not faint.
Teach me LORD, teach me LORD to wait.
