

Catherine B. Richardson

September 8, 1943 - March 3, 2011

Catherine “ Yean” Richardson was born Catherine Bowden on September 8, 1943 in Mt. Gilead, NC to the late Cebie Sr. and Minnie Bowden. She fought a GREAT fight after the onset of a a sudden illness before being called home to God on March 3, 2011. Her brother Marvin Bowden preceded her in death.

Yean was raised in Mt. Gilean and attended Peabody High School in Troy, NC. She played the trumpet for her school band and enjoyed music and dancing. As a young adult, Yean worked at United Mill in North Carolina before moving to Baltimore with her children in 1970. After arriving to Baltimore with her family, she worked at City Hospital, some of Baltimore's retail stores and Bugles Laundry for many years.

After many years of hard work, Yean became a homemaker and enjoyed taking care of her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She wanted the very best for them and wanted them to be happy. She loved to eat at The Golden Coral with her family. She was very generous and always willing to give her last. She would not hesitate to open her home or her heart to those in need.

Yean was very funny and a true original. When she came around, a good laugh or two were sure to follow. She was never afraid to let you know what was on her her mind. Many of us would hear her say” don't start no stuff... won't be no stuff”. You knew exactly what she meant. Yean was Definitely one of kind.

Catherine leave to cherish her memory: her loving and devoted husband Calvin Richardson; six children, Marie Marshall- Duncan, Bertha Mae Mckinney, Richard Jr. Stephanie, Marcus and James Marshall; 10 siblings, Betty Thurman, Cebie Jr. and Jessie Bowden, Shelia Ferguson, Atlas and William Bowden, Carol Champion, Billy, Dester and Lester Bowden; 11 grandchildren, Lachelle, Antoine, Shaun, Shameka, Shakeeda, Shandrea, Tiffani, Antonette, Sidney, Montre, and Morgan; 5 great-grandchildren, Brandon, Camryn, Kaniya, Kennedy, and Keniya; two sister-in-law, Ella and Brenda Bowden; two brother-in-laws, Elder Champion and Chelsey Ferguson Jr.; two son-in-law, Robert McKinney and Wade Duncan; nieces, nephews, three step-daughters, Deanna, Dennie, and sheila; and a host of other relatives and friends

“ Catherine,
I had not seen you in such a long time. And in this time of sorrow, I am happy to have the impression of your lovely smile in my memories. God bless all of your loved ones with strength and comfort.

Edith Rector (Trixie) - March 11, 2011 at 09:13 AM

“ ...Catherine, you will always be known to me as my first sister in-law and the mother of six of my many neices and nephews...i will always remember and admire your unique personality and charm...fond memories of the past are a constant reminder of your laughter and lovely smile....

...God's great blessings to family, loved ones and friends..

” God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble “.
Psalm 46: 1

“ *Uncle Calvin,
My deepest sympathy to you at this time of sorrow. Aunt Catherine is in God's care now and oh what better care could we ever ask for her? No more pain. Now I pray for your comfort, peace and understanding in the days ahead. God bless you and keep you in His tender care and love for all eternity.*

*Love and Prayers,
Christine Richardson*
