

Catherine Simms

February 17, 1928 - December 24, 2002

Catherine R. Simms, daughters of the late Earl Spradley and Rose Rice, was born on February 17, 1928 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on December 24, 2002 after a lengthy illness. She received her education at Dunbar High School in Baltimore, Maryland. Jesse's Seafood House, where she worked for fifteen years as head cook, employed her. Upon leaving Jesse's Seafood House, she became employed by Johns Hopkins University School of Hygiene, when she retired after twenty-eight years. She found Christ at an early age, when she was a member of Enon Baptist Church. She later joined the Mount Moriah Baptist Church. She was a member of the Missionary, the lily of the Valley and the Senior Choir. She married Will Simms and out of this union a son was born, Kevin. Catherine made numerous friends wherever she went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew her. She was always a true friend and a devoted family woman. She leaves to mourn: her husband, Will Simms; one daughter, Joanne Scott; one son, Kevin R. Simms; one sister, Mrs. Barbara Marshall; four grandchildren, Cathy, Rochelle, Damon and Danielle; a sister-in-law, Mrs. Delores H. Campbell; two brothers-in-law, Mr. Arthur Simms and Mr. John Marshall; one son-in-law, one daughter-in-law, nieces, nephews, and adopted son and daughter, Deacon Elroy Jones and Deaconess Diane Jones; and a host of other relatives and special friends.
