“ Please accept my condolences. May it comfort you to know that Jehovah God carries your pain in his heart, and his desire is to erase the pain we experience when we lose a loved one, and to permanently put an end to death, and all of the sorrow associated with it. He never meant this for the human race, and his purpose to restore life to our dead loved ones will be fulfilled. Acts 24:15 promises us that there will be a ressurection. I know your hearts are heavy, and I pray that you recieve the comfort you nees from the prayers of friends, and the caring thoughts of others who care. Jehovah tells us to continue to endure for a short while until the day he wipes out every tear from our eyes and death will be no more. Rev.21:3,4 May your cherished memories of your loved one help you to cope.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your mom. I'm a neighbor that lives a few blocks away. My impression of Mrs. Johnson was that she was a no-nonsense person, she was very direct in her speech, she was orderly and she liked nice things. I could also see that she loved her family very much. It seems that she was always babysitting a little one. She also loved God. This was evident because she enjoyed learning more about God. That's how I met her. I'm one of Jehovah's Witnesses and I would accompany Geraldine Wesley (who passed away a few years ago) who would conduct the Bible study. It is my hope that you may receive much comfort from the Bible and especially during this time of bereavement. John 5:28,29 says- "The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life." May you receive much comfort and solace as you think deeply on the many loving promises found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##
