“ Death is something we will never get use to, no matter what race or religion we are. We all grieve and mourn for our dead love one. So then, is death really the end? No! Almighty God's promise at 1 Corinthians 15:26; 'as the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing.' We have a resurrection hope stated at Acts 24:15; 'there will be a resurrection of the righteous, and the unrighteous.' But in order for us to benefit from these promises, we have to take in accurate knowledge of Jehovah and Jesus Christ mentioned at John 17:3. My deepest sympathy.##imported-begin##Gonsalves##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences. At such difficult times, know that there is a god above who understands what you're going through, and he is the God of all comfort who cares so deeply for us. 1st Peter 5:7. One day all pain and sorrow will be a thing of the past, and your beloved Catherine will come back to life. John 5:28,29. I hope that your precious memories will help you to cope in the days ahead.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Please accept our condolences for the loss of Ms. Davis. First Corinthians 15:26 informs us that our enemy death is to be destroyed. Even more thrilling is the hope of our dead loved ones returning to us with no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. Acts 24:15 assures us: "There is going to be a resurrection." May you receive much comfort and strength from these loving promises of Jehovah God.##imported-begin##Joe and Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends, I offer my sincere sympathy. The loss of one we love causes much sorrow and grief for us all. But there is a remedy to this condition of death. It is the resurrection promised by "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who will comfort us in all our tribulation" 2 Corinthians 1:3,4. Job 14:15,15 lets us know that Jehovah has a "yearning" an earnest longing and desire to resurrect the dead. May you find comfort from these promises in God's word the Bible as we await the fulfillment of this wonderful provision.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
