

Cathy Selena Brown

August 26, 1960 - December 21, 2018

Cathy S. Brown was born on August 26, 1960 in Pitt County, North Carolina to the late Barbara J. Winston. The family moved to Brooklyn, New York in 1966 where she attended Public Schools.

Cathy joined the Tabernacle of Prayer for All People, Inc. ministry and served as a choir member by the late Apostle Johnnie Washington of Jamaica, New York.

Cathy married pastor Benjamin Brown and moved to Baltimore, Maryland and from this union two handsome sons were birthed, Victor and Benjamin Brown. Cathy was a young, energetic fireball for the Lord; she served as the Youth Choir Director, Evangelist, and Prayer Intercessor at the Baltimore Tabernacle of Prayer for all People, Inc.

Upon changing fellowships Cathy and her family became members of the Greater Bethlehem Temple ministry under the leadership of Apostle James D. Nelson, Sr. where Cathy served diligently as a Prayer Intercessor and eager to do whatever her hands found to do!

Cathy's passion and love for Christ was exhibited throughout her "passion for Prayer" what an anointed preacher and teacher who impacted the lives of thousands. Cathy's journey continued as she joined the 1st Apostolic Church under the leadership of Apostle Franklin Cornelius Showell where she passionately served with Women's Ministry, Evangelizing and as Prayer Intercessor until the Lord called her home.

Cathy's love for her sons was extraordinary, you could see her commitment and passion as a "Mother" throughout their lives. Some of you may not know it, but as a young girl growing up Cathy loved to play basketball, and softball. Cathy loved music, her favorite song was "Create in Me a Clean heart", we all know she was in love with Donnie McClurkin he was her favorite musical artist.

Ms. Fashionista she was, Cathy was always adorned with matching suit, shoes and hat, and a little bling-bling on the side. In her younger days she wore stiletto heels that put us all to shame and would strut like it was nothing. Cathy was known by many titles, some called her "State Mother", while others called her "Grand-Aunt Cathy" a name she insisted upon that made her happy!

Cathy loved God and his word, she loved to pray and pray for others and it was transparent wherever she traveled. Cathy was a true prayer warrior. She had a heart filled with love and trusted in those around her. Cathy continued to put God first in everything she did, she always prayed and gave thanks to God for many blessings he had given her.

Cathy was quite a talker, she loved to make people smile and laugh. She would tell stories of Sid and the toy she bought him when she wanted shoes for herself, and stories to her sons about the "not jumping over the fence for there was danger in the next yard (the dog)". Cathy left a tremendous impression upon the lives of the doctors, nurses, and Chaplains as they testified of how great of a witness she was for Christ. I recall one of the Chaplains stating how he would come to pray for Cathy but before he could she was praying for him, and how he could feel the power of God as she prayed.

Even as the hours drew nigh Cathy was found praying for her son, what an intimate moment it was to see a Mother extending her heart to her child and praying as she has done countless times for others, what an awesome "Testimony"

Cathy has left us but will never be forgotten, Victor Brown Son proceeded

Cathy in death. Cathy leaves loving memories to her son Benjamin Brown, her sister Angie Davis, her brother Sidcornia Winston, nephew Erik Davis, niece Michelle Davis, and grandnephews Matthew, Micah, and Emmanuel Baskerville, and a host of cousins and friends. Elder Delores Kingswood (Auntie Delores) and Spiritual daughter Jodi Thomas, and a host godchildren of whom she loved dearly.

Finally, be strong in the Lord and in the power of his Might, and let love be coupled with mercy.
