

Cecelia A. McBurroughs

May 17, 1956 - June 6, 2009

CECELIA A. McBURROUGHS, daughter of the late James A. and Dorothy City Stewart of Benson, North Carolina, was born on May 17, 1956 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on June 6, 2009 after a lengthy illness. Boo, as she was known by family and friends, received her education in the Baltimore City School System. She worked several jobs in Baltimore. She was baptized and was a member of New Lebanon Calvary Baptist Church. In February 1971 she married Gregory McCray, and they later divorced. In 1972 she fell in love with Clarence Griffin, and out of that love union was born one child, the love of her life, her baby Marlene A. Griffin. In 1988 she married a second time to Jarriett McBurroughs whom she loved dearly. Affectionately called Cee-Cee from her Davita Dialysis family even going for her treatments you would always see her pretty smile, and talking and laughing with her friends would brighten her day. She loved to sing and record gospel music for others. She was loved by everyone she came in contact with and will and will be truly missed by all. She leaves to cherish her memory: her loving daughter, Marlene Reeves; son-in-law, Jermaine Reeves; a special niece she adored, Latrice Brinkley; sister, Patricia Lockett Allen; brother-in-law, Eugene Allen; two brothers, Michael Stewart Jr., Harry D. Stewart Sr.; her nieces, Letitia Williams (Fitz), Tabitha Stewart (Nelly); Dreamia Smith (Andre), Yvonne Hughes (Mark), Elaine Hughes (Tony), Tanyell Lockett Mack (Jerry), Letitia King and Stephanie Abrams; nephews, Mike-Mike, Donnell Jr., Melgie, Otis Hopkins, Walter Lockett Jr., James A.

Pearson II, Larry Lockett; several aunts and uncles; a caring, devoted friend, Deborah Rippy of N.C.; and a host of great-nieces, great-nephews, cousins, friends and adopted son, Jason Foreman.

“ I offer my sympathy to the family and friends of Cee Cee It seems unfair that death has the power to take away someone we love. The Bible is comforting in this regard. It promises that our loved ones now dead will live again. You can read these words at John 11:20-27. May you continue to rely and find comfort in reading the Bible.##imported-begin##Peggy Jones Land##imported-end##

“ My condolences to Marlene and her family. Your mom was a sweet wonderful woman, she's in good hands with God. You were such a strong and wonderful daughter to take care of her for so long. Marlene, take care of yourself and let me know if I can help in any way. Sincerely, Terry Barcikowski, Asst to Dr. Mark Hughes (410)955-1733.##imported-begin##Terry Barcikowski##imported-end##

“ I would like to offer my sincere condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. The Bible teaches about a future time when all those in the memorial tombs will come out by means of a resurrection (John5:28-29) to life on a paradise earth (Psalm37:11,29). May you find comfort in God and the many wonderful promises found in his word the Bible because Titus1:2 assures us that he cannot lie.###imported-begin###C. Murphy###imported-end##
