“ My deepest sympathy and condolences to the Smith, Brown, and Ashe family on the loss of CeCe. My family lived next door to CeCe's grandmother, and we used to see CeCe and Stephanie all the time. I have fond memories of CeCe. I remember CeCe used to suck her thumb and her pigtail at the same time. We will surely miss her.

“ There are not any words to express my condolences to Stephanie & Cece's children & grandchildren. St. John's beach trips & Washington Park activities will always be wonderful memories shared. I am so blessed to have had Cece as my friend. She will be missed, but she's wrapped in our Father's arms.

“ I remember so much love, fun, and caring from Mr. Bro, Ms. Dollie, CeCe, and Stephanie. The sleepovers, trips to the beach, and just being around people who were like family made my childhood great. I always loved CeCe's quick smile, deep soulful voice, and sense of humor. I particularly remember a trip to Buckroe Beach. We were 'tailgating' in a place where there was a huge tree. We heard a funny sound, looked up, and there was CeCe in the tree croaking like a frog. Mr. Bro told her sternly yet with a smile in his voice, 'Girl, if you don't get down out of that tree'. We couldn't stop laughing.

CeCe and Stephanie... we always said this like they were one person. Stephanie, I know you love you truly love your sister. I have no words to describe what you must be feeling. Please be comforted by memories of her and knowledge that she knew the depth of your love for her. Sending you prayers and much love!!

“ My condolences and prayers go out to all those who are grieving at this time.

Matthew 11: 28-30 “Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.”

“ With deepest sympathy to the family. Cee Cee will truly be missed! She always kept a smile on everyone's face by just being the fun loving person that she was. She could be the life of the party at times, but also that person that would lend an ear when needed. Gonna miss you!!! Love And Peace Henry and Martha.
