“ I am sorry to learn of the death of Cecelia. I am sure that this must have been a difficult time for your family. I am forwarding scripture that will comfort you. Psalm 90:10 says that the usual human life span is 70 or 80 years. That was true when Moses wrote it, but that was not so from the beginning. (compare Genesis 5:3-32.) Hebrews 9:27 says, It is reserved for men to die once for all time. This , too, was true when it was written. But it was not the case before God passed judgment on sinful Adman.##imported-begin##JT nunnally##imported-end##

“ My deepest condolences to the Fisher concerning the death of your loved one. May it comfort you to know that Almighty God knows the deep pain you are feeling, and he promises in his word the bible to bring an end to pain and death permanantly. Noone wants to lose a loved one, and it was never God's purpose for this to happen. One day John 5:28,29 says, "All those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." By means of this promised ressurection, you can be reunited with your loved one again. I hope this promise helps you to cope, and brings you some comfort through your pain.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##
