

Cecelia A Johnson

July 9, 1932 - April 11, 2024

CECELIA ANNA JOHNSON, daughter of the late Cecelia A. Torrence, was born on July 9, 1932 in Baltimore, Maryland.

She was educated in the Baltimore City public schools and graduated from Carver High School. Being reared in a religious family, she was baptized at a young age; and after years she joined Whitestone Baptist Church in 1960, which she attended until her health prevented her from physically being present. She loved to sing and belonged to the Whitestone Senior Choir for many years. Cecelia loved children, and while raising her own five children she worked as a Teacher's Aide at Lynhurst Elementary School for 24 years where she was awarded for her well-done job. She took much pride in helping children in and out of school and enjoyed seeing how they had grown as they stopped by her home to visit her and to say hello.

Cecelia was a very fun-loving person and had a smile that would light up a room.

She was always eager and happy to help anyone.

On Thursday, April 11, 2024 God called His faithful servant Cecelia home after a lengthy illness. She never complained about her illness and never gave up her faith in God. She would say, "It's all in my Heavenly Father's hands". Her faith helped keep all of us strong.

Cecelia leaves to cherish her memory and mourn her passing: daughters, Shirley Jackson, Diane Webb and Rayvelle Stallings; sons, Sean Pulliam and Andre' Hopkins; daughters-in-law, Anita Pulliam and Laura Hopkins; grandchildren, Gerald Jackson, Michael Barksdale (wife Crystal), Darryl Barksdale, Tiffany Webb and Diante' Webb (wife Kayla), Devon Reed, Octavia Reed, Kiaree and Keera Pulliam; twenty-two great-grandchildren, eight great-great-grandchildren and a host of cousins, nieces and nephews.
