“ To the family:

2 Corinthians 5:6-8 so we are always of good courage. We know that while we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord, for we walk by faith, not by sight. Yes, we are of good courage, and we would rather be away from the body and at home with the Lord.

Be encourage, love one another; Know that God makes no mistakes.

“ To Annette, Steven and Sabrina

I am so sorry to hear of the passing away of your mother and grandmother. Know that God will continue to strengthen and carry you through this very difficult journey. Earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal and hold on to all the beautiful memories that you all have shared. She is now resting in the arms of God so take comfort in that there will be no more pain or sickness. I love you and will continue to keep all of you as well as your family in my prayers.

“ Annette, Steven, Sabrina and Family,

You have my deepest sympathy on the passing of your mother and grandmother. I know that your hearts are heavy at this time. The love that resides so deep in us wants to keep our loved ones with us always. But God created her and He loves her, too. She is now home with the Lord, where she will no longer be in pain. God is with each of you to comfort and ease your pain, as well. He will not leave you forsaken. His love for you is greater than ever. I pray that you will feel His presence now and in the days to come. Allow Him to envelope you so that your joy may be restored as you share the wonderful memories with each other and all who did not have the opportunity to meet her in this lifetime. I will continue to keep you all in my prayers!
