

Cecelia B. Sanders

September 20, 1920 - March 7, 2013

CECELIA BEATRICE SANDERS 92, was called home on Thursday, March 7, 2013 at Northwest Hospital. Over and over she kept saying “ I want to go home”, and in a moment and a twinkling of an eye God called her spirit home.

Cecelia, daughter of the late Archie and Hilda Goldman, was born on September 20, 1920 in Philadelphia PA. The family moved to Baltimore, MD where Cecelia received her education in the Baltimore, School System.

Cecelia was best known as (Seal) to her family and friends. Seal was married to the late James Sanders who departed this life on July 7, 1995. Out of this union seven children were born, Shirley, Leon, Jimmy, Gloria, Barbara, Bernard and Ronnie.

Seal was raised in a Christian home and received Christ as her Savior at an early age. She attended and was a member of the First Apostolic Faith Church Inc. and remained until her death. In the church Seal was known as “Mother Sanders’. In her earlier years she served on the Missionary and Hospitality board. Cecelia loved helping others. It put a smile on my face to see my mother march around the church with her head held high, even though she needed help herself. No matter how sick Seal was she always took time to help someone else. She was always part of family and on her birthday we would ask what she’d like; she would always say, “Money Honey”.

Cecelia leaves to cherish her memory: one daughter, Barbara Butler; one son, Bernard Haines; eight grandchildren, eleven great-grandchildren, one great-great-grandchild; one aunt, Anita Hall; three daughters-in-law, Shirley Haines, Victoria Haines and Marquette Haines, and a host of family and friends.

“ I am sorry to read about the passing away of our love one. Please accept my sincere condolences. May the family find comfort and support in the Holy Scriptures knowing Jehovah God is aware of your distress during this time. God promise at John 5:25 which says : The hour is coming ...when the dead will hear the voice of son of God (Jesus) and those who have given heed will live. My deepest sympathies to your entire family.

“ To the family of Cecelia B. Sanders:
Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The unscriptural doctrines that are taught concerning death do not leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. Nonetheless, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). “ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

“ My very first memories of my Grandmother were during Kindergarten for a half a day, My grandma would make me a Bologna sandwich, a cinnamon bun and the glass bottled cocoa cola..... everyday. As us kids would stand next to her, she would always stand on her toes to make herself seem taller, while laughing. You will be missed and FOREVER IN MY HEARTCeil.
