“ I send my sincere and heartfelt sympathy to the family. It's been some months since he passed away, but truly we never forget. Death is something that we can never get used to, and it is so unfair that any family has to go through this. God never desired this pain for us, because he is the creator of all life, and he hates death. He views it as our enemy. That is why 1st Cor 15:26 promises, "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." As for the dead, one day they will hear the voice of God's son, Jesus, and they will come out alive from the memorial tombs. May you be coomforted by these wonderful promises.
