“ Please accept my condolences. I just wanted to share with you all some spiritual comfort from the bible. The bible's promises can help us to heal when we lose a loved one, because it gives us God's thoughts, and tells us of his wonderful purpose to put an end to sickness and death in the near future. Isaiah 25,8 tells us that Jehovah will swallow up death forever, and will certainly wipe the tears from all faces." 1st Cor 15:26 lets us know that our enemy, death, will be destroyed forever, and Acts 24:15, and John 5:28,29 lets us know that the dead will be brought back to life. So may the bible be a source of comfort to your family as it has been to mine, and may your precious memories of Cecille help you to cope in the days ahead.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ I would like to extend my sincere condolences to Ms. Harris' family and friends. As you cherish the many memories of Cecile, take comfort in our Heavenly Father's promise of a resurrection. Daniel 12:2 states, "And there will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up." John 5:28,29 confirms that promise. May you continue to find comfort from the Holy Scriptures.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##

“ To the family of Cecile Harris I just read about the recent death of your love one. I am deeply concerned about the sorrow and distress that you must be experiencing. I have some GOOD NEWS to share with you regarding loss. The Bible promises us that we will have the opportunity to see our dear love ones again. At John 5:28, 29 Jesus Christ assures us that “everyone in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out”. The promise of a resurrection is held out to all those falling asleep in death (Acts 24:15). Jehovah God has promised obedient mankind at Revelation 21:1-4 that very soon pain, sickness and yes even death will be no more, because according to 1John 4:8 “God is love”. I sincerely hope these words brought your family comfort###imported-begin## Louise Hibbler###imported-end##
