

Cedric Carlton Burns Sr.

May 12, 1959 - July 20, 2024

Cedric Carlton Burns, Sr., the son of the late Mary R. Burns and Wilbert T. Burns Sr., was born on May 12, 1959. He departed this life on July 20, 2024.

Cedric Sr., a native of Baltimore, attended Northwestern High School. He was preceded in death by his parents and his brother, John.

Cedric, the second oldest of nine children was affectionately called “Brother” by his siblings. Brother loved his family and life. Cedric loved singing songs around the house and would often be heard singing songs by the Commodores. He often imitated Dr. Martin Luther King’s, “I Have A Dream Speech.” He had the gift of being able to earn and save money. At times he could save his entire paychecks - a gift so many wish they had. Cedric had a heart for animals and would often bring a stray dog home to nurture and feed. He also was an avid sports fan and loved animation.

As a teenager, always particular about his appearance, Cedric Sr. would often be seen in the mirror grooming his facial hair and as his sisters looked on, he would jokingly say, “You like it girls, don’t you?”

Cedric had a quiet and gentle spirit. Cedric joined the Marines in 1978 and was military police. Upon leaving the service he was employed as a landscaper and held other various jobs. His most recent job was with Baltimore Washington International Airport.

He was a beloved father, brother, uncle and friend.

Cedric is survived by two loving and devoted children, Cedric Jr. and Indyaa; two grandchildren; four sisters, Paula, Dinah, Miriam (Garry) and Delores (Terry); three brothers, Wilbert Jr., Rodney and Glenn; as well as a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
