“ It's so crazy how life plays itself out. For some reason, I decided to listen to Living Colour today; and I called my friend, Cedric, to reminisce a little bit, since he was the one who had introduced me to them and took me to my very first concert to see them when I was 26. He's had the same number since I was 16, so when it said it was disconnected, I knew something was wrong. When his cell number was also disconnected, I googled his name to see if he was on Facebook, although I knew he wasn't, and saw a link to March's Funeral Home instead, saying he passed away. I'm I've known this guy thirty-seven years of the fifty-three that I've existed...countless hours on the telephone, laughter until my side hurt...he's been through every relationship, every birth, every triumph, every defeat, now he's gone. WTF???!?! I'll miss you, my friend. 🥺

“ *Cedric and I have been friends,for forty four years.We ,became friends at Windsor hills elementary and remained friends until has passing.Cedric always kept you laughing even if you was having a bad day.
Bestie you are going to be missed a great deal and your death has lefted myself,and others with the worst heartache.Until we meet again,love you always, a brother from another mother that's who you are and always be to me.*
