

Celeste G. Butler

October 20, 1922 - August 7, 2002

Celeste Wheatey Butler was born on October 20, 1922 in Baltimore, Maryland. She was educated in the schools of Baltimore, Maryland and worshipped in several of the local city churches. Celeste married the late Louis Norman Randolph Butler and two children were born into this union, JoAnn Debra Jiggetts “Debbie,” and the late William Butler. The family thrived in Baltimore City and Celeste worked for many years at the Johns Hopkins Hospital. Ill health forced her to retire early and she had to adopt an easier lifestyle. She chose the Allendale Senior Complex as her home and fell into a retired routine there. Celeste was always a very private person who truly enjoyed her own company in her own space. She enjoyed making ceramics and sewing and she put a lot of time into her projects. Many of her creations beautify areas of homes all over Baltimore and many surrounded her in her home. Celeste was also a “talker.” Since she could not get around easily, she was an ardent telephone socializer. Anyone who knew her well cannot recall many times when she actually ended a telephone conversation. In spite of her ailments, she was upbeat most of the time and often found things to joke and laugh about. Celeste quietly departed this life on August 8, 2002 in her private space surrounded by the things to joke and laugh about. Celeste quietly departed this life on August 8, 2002 in her private space surrounded by the things she loved. She leaves to cherish her memory: her devoted daughter, Debbie;” granddaughter, Michan; grandson, Owen; four grandsons, Caiya, Morgan, James and Stanley; other relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Celeste G. Butler

---

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Sometimes words just are not enough to take away our grief, so we rely on God for help and strength in our belief. May He uplift you greatly, take the sorrow that you bear, than comfort you with healing in the safety of His care... May God's love comfort you at this difficult time.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM