“ To the family. I would like to extend my deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. At this very grievous time it could seem extremely difficult to find comfort, but there is a comforter who soothes us in such a way that no human ever could. The Bible calls Jehovah God, “the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all of our tribulation.” (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4) And what’s more his word gives us further relief and a beautiful hope. At John chapter 5, verses 28 and 29 we read of a promise that is very soon to be realized. It speaks of an event in which all who have fallen asleep in death will live again. Yes, a resurrection from an unconscious state, to life right here on a paradise earth. (Psalm 37:10, 11) May you find comfort as you reflect on this wonderful occasion that is to come.##imported-begin##Sausha S.##imported-end##

“ Hello ! Harrison's ! I would like to send my condolences to you all, the family & friends. Mr. Celester circle of life was broken after 90 years of living. It is so wonderful to live that many years as the bible say at Ps.90 :10, some person will live to be 70 years old and others because of special mightiness 80 years. Imagine the happiness when the dead are resurrected back to life in the near future. The time is coming when no one will ever die again, Isa.25:8. Through the many years Mr. Celester met many people and accomplish many things to be proud of in his life path. I hope these few thoughts will be uplifting and positive to read and share. May all the cherished memories of Mr. Celester support you all in life journey ahead.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##

“ I extend my deepest sympathy to the family during this time. The death of a loved one is so hard to come to terms with, and causes so much grief to the family and friends. Our loving heavenly father is aware of the deep pain death brings, and that is why he has purposed to end all death very shortly. This was never God's purpose; this pain and grief did not come up into his heart. John 3:16 says: "For God loved the world so much that he gave his only-begotten son so that everyone exercising faith in him might not be destroyed, but have everlasting life." This was God's purpose for people to live forever in peaceful and secure conditions. Psalm 37:10,11 One day all the dead in Jehovah's memory will hear the voice of Jesus, and they will come out of the memorial tombs. John 5:28,29. May you be comforted by this promise from Jehovah.##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##
