

Celestine K. Williams

July 3, 1963 - February 9, 2002

On Saturday, February 9, 2002, God sent the Angel of Death to touch His humble servant, Celestine Keawanee Williams. She left this earth to join the Heavenly Hosts. She was born on July 31, 1963 in Sumpter, South Carolina to Elease and James Williams. Soon after, the family moved to Baltimore, Maryland. Celestine was educated in the Baltimore City School System. Celestine gave her life to Christ and was faithful member of Perkins Square Baptist Church. Celestine loved life and lived it to the fullest, and towards the end she never feared death. For she knew that when she would leave this life, she would be with her God. For you see, Celestine gave her life to Christ! She was truly Blessed! Celestine, also known as "Ness," was known to always speak her mind, loved to laugh, and always had a joke. During her lifetime, Celestine made numerous friends wherever she went, and always left a lasting impression. Her presence will be sorely missed. She leaves behind to celebrate her life her loving family: her daughter, Keawanee; her mother, Elease; father, James; four brothers, James Michael, Johnnie, Steven and James, all of Baltimore; one niece, Stephanie; six aunts, Ida (Auntie), Lucille, Gloria, Gladys of Baltimore, Geneva of Miami, Florida, and Jean of South Carolina; four uncles, Joseph of Baltimore, Bernie, Timothy and Charlie of South Carolina; and a great host of other relatives and friends, and the Perkins Square Baptist Church. Dear Lord Jesus, I cried when my daughter Celestine died. So you understand how I am feeling today. Comfort me for I am sad and lonely without the one I love so much. Help me to be glad that my daughter Celestine is happy with You and free forever from sadness and pain.

Teach me to trust and love You so that I too may live with You forever. Amen
Mother, Please Mitchell
