

Chandra Darlene Marable

July 16, 1966 - April 10, 2024

In Loving Memory

Chandra Darlene Marable

Chandra Darlene Marable, 57, of Richmond, VA. transitioned peacefully to be with the the Lord, Wednesday, April 10, 2024 at MCV Hospital, Richmond, VA. She was the the first born of three children to the late Granville William "Sleepy" Marable and Joyce Anderson Marable on July 16, 1966, Washington, DC. After relocating back to Keeling, VA for a brief period, the family permanently moved to Richmond, VA, where Chandra became a lifelong resident

Being educated in the Richmond Public Schools, she was a 1984 Armstrong Graduate. A lasting bond of classmate friendships and fellowship were established and remained for what would have been 40 years.

Chandra, affectionately know as Chan by her Mom, took immense pride in solely providing for her Mom for almost 40 years. In homage to her mother's love for family, and the relationships she maintained with both the Anderson and Marable families, Chan who was blessed with two children of her own, son Montrell (Chameika) and daughter Erica Marable, taught them many of the same traits that she was taught by her mom, including the love of taking care of their mother.

Accepting Jesus as Lord and Savior she united in Christian fellowship with Mt. Carmel Baptist Church. she was employed by the Commonwealth of Virginia for 20 years.

Although her physical presence will be missed ,she'll be kept alive in the hearts of many. In addition to her mother & children,survivors include:three grandchildren; ChaMon,Kyree and Kase who were the apples of her eye;siblings;Kevin and Toni Marable,aunts; Maureen,Rose and Gloria,uncle Ronnie;remaining great aunt Lena Ferrell; devoted friends for decades,Eric Harris,Natalie Edmonds,Calandra Trotter,her Marable and Anderson families,1984 classmates and a host of other relatives and friends. Chandra was predeceased by her father,both maternal and paternal grandparents,Mary Anderson Barksdale and Douglas and Annie Boyd Marable.

The photogenic smile,stern comments and direct opinions that she possessed, will have lasting impacts on those who knew and loved her.

“ Chandra, I know you are smiling down on us and saying, "I'm alright now"! I will miss your smile and the way you made me laugh. To the family of Chandra, please know that she is not suffering and in a place we all hope to be one day. I worked with Chandra and she always talked about her family and loved you all THE MOST. She will truly be missed.

“ Weeping may endure for a night, but joy comes in the morning. I remember her when she would bring her Mother to Mt. Carmel Baptist Church for worship. Chandra always had a smile. RIP until we meet again.

“ First in East End Middle school, Nathaniel Bacon, Armstrong and beyond. The first thing that comes to mind is her smile. She was always smiling or laughing about something. I remember when she had Demond and “ChooChoo”. We would talk on the phone for hours almost every day. Then “LIFE” and the wind blew us in different directions. She is one of my many memories so she will always be alive to me.
