

Chanel Diane Trader

December 3, 1986 - January 31, 2018

On December 3, 1986 at 12:23 a.m., born to Rufus Lamont and Edwina Trader, was a delightful and only daughter by the name of Chanel Diane Trader. She was born at Langley Air Force Base in Wiesbaden, West Germany.

Chanel attended Parkville High School and graduated in 2005. That Fall, as her father went to Kuwait, Chanel began studies at Bucknell University and graduated in 2009 with a dual Bachelors' Degree in History and Anthropology. Chanel was a brilliant and avid student. She continued her journey of education by graduating in 2012 from CCBC with an Associates' degree in Nursing. In 2014, Chanel graduated with a Masters' Degree in Forensic Psychology from The Chicago School of Professional Psychology. She was forever learning and embraced new information. She spent much of her free time watching documentaries about nature, history and people's life stories. She also enjoyed animated tv shows like Archer, The Cleveland Show and King of the Hill. She also enjoyed comedies like Roseanne, Will & Grace, Martin and Living Single.

Chanel initially worked as a Nurse at St. Joseph's Hospital. Later, she continued her career opportunities at the State of Maryland as a Management Associate. In October 2015, she went to work for her Aunt at Absolute Staffing & Consulting Solutions until the end of 2017. Chanel was not afraid to take risks, after various opportunities and experiences, she decided to launch into the world of entrepreneurship in 2015. Chanel started her own company called, C & R Property Management. In early 2017, she and her life partner John Rosenthal started her second business, "Eddie's Macarons", named after her mom, her initial investor for her start-up business. She volunteered for World Assemblies of Restoration since she was 9 years old, and wherever you saw her mom, you were sure to see Chanel.

Many of Chanel's favorite things consisted of her sports teams, which include the Dallas Cowboys and the Washington Wizards. She loved all things pertaining to "Arsenal Football" (European Soccer), so to the point that her parents had to purchase new Arsenal jerseys twice a year, every year. She had a love for "WWE Wrestling", particularly, Charlotte Flair and Roman Reigns. She also had a love for tennis; one of her favorite tennis players was a Swiss Professional named Roger Federer. Chanel's favorite color was blue, more specifically, Dallas Cowboys blue. One of her favorite past-times was going fishing with her Dad and her Uncle Mervin on his boat.

Chanel enjoyed life at its fullest. She listened to all kinds of music and enjoyed listening to podcasts. She smoked cigars and collected cigar bands. She loved coffee and you would often find her enjoying a cup of coffee while putting together a 1,000-piece jigsaw puzzle with John. One of Chanel's favorite things to do was spend time with family, whether it was at family gatherings or during the holidays. With her dad being a Chef, Chanel always took part in creating the menu for holidays and Super bowl. She could listen for hours to stories about her parents, grandparents, aunts and uncles. Family travels always brought her much happiness. Chanel was a "speedster" and she always drove fast.

She was a laid-back person. It was not uncommon to see her in comfortable leggings, a t-shirt and flip flops. Although a very soft-spoken person, she spoke her mind and you always knew where you stood with her. Chanel was fiercely loyal to her friends and family. She was a champion of the underdog; she would argue for the rights of the mistreated and the downtrodden. She was a giver; always giving to the homeless person on the street. She had a heart for people.

On January 31, 2018 at 1:00p.m., God saw fit to take this beloved only daughter as she crossed the threshold to a new beginning. She will be greatly missed by her parents, Rufus and Edwina Trader; her life partner, John Rosenthal; her cat, Smokey; her dog, Henry; and a host of Aunts, Uncles, Cousins and Friends “ Words are simply inadequate but our deepest sympathies are with Edwina, Lamont and the entire Trader family. May Chanel always be remembered as a remarkably bright, hard-working and engaging young woman who was called home too soon. May she rest in peace and may fond memories of her sustain those to whom she was so dear.
