CELEBRATION OF LIFE FOR CHARLENE MICHELE BELL-JEFFRIES

Friday, February 9, 2018

Charlene Michele Bell-Jeffries, was born September 6, 1952 in Richmond, Virginia out of the union of her parents, Juanita Giles Bell and Charles McQuilan Bell, who preceded her in death along with her youngest sibling Daniel Ray Bell.

She grew up in Historic Church Hill and as a child she attended Refuge Temple. She was a graduate of Maggie Walker High School, Class of "71". In her early years you could find images of her in the local paper and magazines. She slayed as a picture perfect model. Charlene, affectionately known as "Charli" or "Lene" worked for years at the Internal Revenue Service and finished her employment at Stuart Circle Hospital. Her Love for people always shined thru no matter where she was. She enjoyed cooking and going dancing always in her signature "Fish Nets and High Heels". Hanging with family and friends was a good time to her. She enjoyed her life to the fullest and her "No Nonsense" approach made for some funny times. There was no other when it came to talking "Trash".

Charlene went home to be with the Lord on Saturday, January 20, 2018. She is survived by her sister, Lydia B. Cox and brother, Charles M. Bell, Jr.; three children, Kevin N. Bell, Calvin Jeffries, Jr. and Brandi T. Bell; 14 grandchildren;

10 great grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends.
