“ It was a privileged blessing to have known you Charlene, your heart was pure as gold. I had never met such a kind, and loving hearted person as you were. You can rest now, but I know I will see you again one day. I'm so thankful, that God allowed you to be a part of my family. Love in Christ Jesus, Lou, Terry's sister.

“ Hey girlll
I'm proud of you.. You put up a great fight and now your finally getting the rest you deserve. I can see you popping up and trying to figure out what time it is. But you can just rest them eyes of yours I gotcha. Catch up with with grandma and daddy for me. I love yall...
❤️ I'm holding everything down for you. You would be so proud of me right now... and guess WHAT you was wrong about the boys 🤔🤔
🤔. You had a heart of gold and would give your last to whoever needed it most. I never realized how many people you invited into your home & world. I can't lie your broke alot of hearts by leaving us so soon. But you're forever teaching us a new lesson.
That's all I wanted to tell you for now... I'll talk to you later 🥰

“ My big sister Charlene, in whom I love dearly. You were like a second mom to me. You had a beautiful soul. You were always willing to help out anyone who had a need. To your children, may God continually comfort and keep you all in this time of grief. May his love cover and touch your heart. To my brothers and sisters, our circle has been broken again. God help us all. Journey well, my sister. Your baby brother Glenn

“ Sending hugs to my siblings, her kids, grandkids and family. Once again our circle have been broken and we are now in our season of sorrow. We know that God is able carry us through and give us strength to endure this season. God wrap your loving arms around her kids & grandkids and comfort their hearts. Lord, let them look to you. Justin, Regis, Jordon, Channon your mom will always be with you in your heart. Remember those magical moments you shared they are now precious memories. I love you, guys
