CHARLENE REGINA KING, daughter of the late Richard and Doretha Brown, was born on December 7, 1962 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life peacefully on July 8, 2022.

Charlene was educated in the Maryland school system. She graduated from Lake Clifton High School in 1981. She also graduated cum laude from the Community College of Baltimore County.

In the year of 2004, Charlene married Dewitt King. They enjoyed traveling to his hometown of Philadelphia to eat, shop and spend time with family.

Upon her retirement from the IRS, she enjoyed spending her time with friends and family. Additionally, Charlene worked part-time as a home health care provider and cherished the relationships she built with her clients.

“Foxy Brown”, as she was affectionately called by her friends and family, was known for being the life of the party. She made everyone feel welcome and did everything she could to keep the party going. You always knew Charlene was there and could find her simply by finding the laughter, music, or dance floor. Wherever she went she always had a smile on her face and a song in her heart.

Charlene was preceded in death by her three brothers and one sister, Sylvester Brown, Richard Brown, Nathaniel Brown and Barbara Coad.

She leaves behind to cherish her memory: two daughters, J’Nae Murrell and J'Leah Patrick; son-in-law Ryan Murrell; and one grandson, Greyson Murrell. She is also survived by her sisters, Joan Shaw, Brenda Melvin (Charles Melvin) and Doris Toller; brother, Eugene Brown; and a host of nieces, nephews and cousins. Charlene also leaves behind many former co-workers, classmates, and lifelong friends.

Charlene was a loving and caring person always ready to lend a helping hand when needed. Her supportive nature and kind heart was felt by so many.

Charlene lived a full life and her beautiful smile and spirit would light up any room. She will be sorely missed.
