

Charles Abram Coles

May 21, 1926 - April 6, 2008

CHARLES A. COLES, son of William and Ruby Cason, was born on May 21, 1926 in Buckingham, Virginia. He departed this life on Sunday, April 6, 2008 at Hamilton Genesis Nursing Home. He received his education in the Buckingham County Public School System. He accepted Christ at an early age and was a member of Newstore Baptist Church. He stressed the importance of education to all who knew him. His advice and wisdom were sought and valued by all he encountered. He was employed at Lucent Technologies in Richmond, Virginia for over twenty years. He had four children, who preceded his death, from a previous marriage. He also had eight siblings who preceded him. Later on in life he met and married Gloria Brown Coles. Together they joined Ebenezer Baptist Church. He faithfully attended church until his health started failing. Any and everyone who knew him as either Charlie or Mr. Coles knew he had a heart of gold and a beautiful smile. He leaves to cherish his memory: his wife of thirty-years, Gloria Coles; two brothers, Joe Coles and William Coles (Nellie) of Virginia; three brothers-in-law, Arthur Redd, Clarence Redd of Maryland and Robert Redd (Louvinia) of Virginia; son, Rev. Robert Gene Morton of New Jersey; stepdaughter, Priscilla Brown of Maryland; and a host of grandchildren, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
