

Charles Anthony Armwood

October 18, 1963 - July 5, 2002

Charles A. Armwood, son of Charles C. Armwood and Sandra Nicholas (Jones) was born on October 18, 1963 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on July 5, 2002 after a brief illness. He received his education at the Baltimore Experimental High School. Following graduation, he attended the University of Maryland for a period of time, and began a career in the field of Healthcare Information Systems. In the ensuing years, Charles became employed as a Senior Application Support Analyst by the Johns Hopkins University and as a Senior Healthcare Analyst by the University Physicians Inc. He even ventured into the world of independent Information Systems Consultant, and enjoyed traveling about the nation. Although Charles did not claim a home church, he was an avid viewer and contributor to the Trinity Broadcast Network Ministry, the 700 Club Ministry, and the Jack Van Impe Ministry. Charles passion in life were his cats “the boys and girls,” traveling, dining and his work. Charles made numerous friends wherever he went, and spread a gentle joy to all around him. He will be greatly missed by everyone who knew him. He was always a giving, true friend and a loving son. He leaves to celebrate his passing into the Joy of the LORD: his mother, Sandra N. Jones; great aunt, Tina Smith; his uncles, Bishop Mark Hammond, Horace Bailey, and Kevin Bailey, his aunts, Sylvia Bailey, Phyllis Hammond, Cynthia Hammond and Rhonda Hammond; and a host of nephews, nieces, cousins and friends.

“ ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS The Mother, Sandra N Jones, and the family, would like acknowledge with deep gratitude, all the love and comfort extended by my family members and friends during this time of bereavement. I have been touched by the visits from family members and friends who came to the hospital, and those that called, to see Charles during his time of need. My best remembrance is the visit Charles had with his Aunt Sylvia. She brought him a figurine of two angel bears to take care of him. I have never seen Charles smile so SWEETLY ever his whole life long. I shall cherish that memory as long as I live. I would like to express especial thanks to Charles's uncle, Bishop Mark Hammond, who loved Charles like a son; and Charles loved his uncle like a father. Especial thanks to Charles's Second Mothers: Mrs. Johnson and Ro, who loved Charles like a son since adolescence and young adulthood. He loved them too. We shall miss you.##imported-begin##MOTHER##imported-end##

“ No words can express how much I miss Charles. Not a day goes by that I don't find something to ask him, tell him or just want and need to chat with him. It has been such a pleasure to have has him as a friend. He always put others before himself. My coworkers still comment about how on crabcake trips they were included when he didn't even know them as individuals but included them because they were my coworkers and friends. Charles was always smiling and always caring. His last of his many trips was to "the Kingdom of God". May you rest in peace my special "Angel". You are so missed. We will see each other again some day.##imported-begin##Rosalie Grubowski##imported-end##

“ To the family, I'm a life long friend of Mark's and came to know Charles well. We visted Tijuana together. He always amazed me with his knowledge of how and where to travel. I now know why Charles lived each day to the fullest. I'll treasure his memory. God bless you###imported-begin###Harold Simpson###imported-end###

“ Charles, I know you can see and hear what's happening here on earth beyond the veil of our existence and understanding. I hope you know I miss you very very much. You are/were the best friend anyone could ever ask for and I will never forget you. I can't wait until I can see and talk to you again when Heavenly Father calls me back to his Celestial Kingdom. To anyone who reads this: If you want to contact me to talk about Charles and his final days among us and what he meant to me personally, please feel free to call or write. “ Charles was an Angel sent by God to touch as many lives as possible. He taught us how to be a friend,how to laugh and most of all how to love and live. I thank God for the pleasurable experience of meeting one of his special Angels.To his mom I'd just like to say, "That weeping is for a night, but joy comes in the morning" also Please remember that"To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. Our bodies give out,but our spirits live on. Charles will live on in each person he came in contact with.##imported-begin##Regina Murchison##imported-end##

“ Charles was a very dear man and will be sorely missed by many people here on Earth. My heart and prayers go out to his mother and family during this trying time. When you start to get sad, think of all of the good times that Charles experienced here with you knowing that they will resume again when we join him above. Charles, god bless and keep smiling.##imported-begin##Sue McColgan##imported-end##
