

Charles B. Gross

August 15, 1927 - January 16, 2002

Charles B. Gross Jr., the son of Charles B. Gross Sr., and his late mother Irene Fontleroy was born on August 15, 1927 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life peacefully on January 16, 2002 at Sinai Hospital after a lengthy battle with heart disease. He received his primary education from the public schools of Baltimore, Maryland. After school he decided to serve his country by entering the United States Air Force. After serving his time in the military he worked at several companies; Bethlehem Steele and the Greenspring Dairy Company. Due too early diagnosis of heart disease, he had to retire at an early age. In his spare time, he and his wife joined several bowling leagues. Bowling was one of his favorite pass times. Above all, he was a family patriarch, provider and loving husband and father. He went beyond the call of duty helping his family members and others. He would help friends and neighbors, or even a stranger in distress. He also made sure all his children had a better opportunity of achieving their goals. He leaves to cherish his memory: his loving wife of forty-six years, Ruth J. Gross; six children, Charles III, Kevin, Michael, Dwayne, Charlene B. Williams and Colleen J. Waters; his father, Charles B. Gross Sr., a brother-in-law, Isaiah Samuel Johnson; two sons-in-law, Winston Williams and Mark Waters; two daughters-in-law, Susan Gross and Fay Gross; one nephew, Ricardo Isaiah Johnson; two nieces, Adrienne Gross Townes and Allison J. Hall; seven grandchildren and a host of other special relatives and friends.
