

Charles Banks

August 26, 1940 - November 18, 2009

On November 18, 2009, our beloved father CHARLES L. BANKS JR. departed this life. He was born on August 26, 1940, to the late Charles L. Banks Sr. and Edith Banks. Charles, known affectionately as “Buster,” was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. He proudly served in the U.S. Army where he was tasked as a professional sharp shooter. He was also a dedicated worker for the Mayflower Moving Company, where he worked diligently for many years until he reluctantly retired. Buster was a dedicated New York Yankees and Jets fan when he resided in his beloved New York City. But then he relocated back to Baltimore where he became a dedicated Ravens fan. Buster was very well liked and very much loved. He leaves to mourn: his beloved wife of forty-nine years, Isabella Banks; daughters, Phyllis Banks, Brenda Banks, Charmaine Clay, Raney Clay, Francis Clay and Stephanie; one son, Charles L. Banks Jr.; stepdaughters, Berdina Evans, Nishelle (Thorpe) Kane; stepsons, Andre Evans, Joseph Thorpe, and the late Angelo Evans II. He also leaves a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews and a very dedicated pet “Rex” as well as two aunts, Maude Brown and Helena Thomas.

“ To the family of Mr. Banks, please accept my condolences on the passing of your loved one. The scriptures provide a hope for a resurrection at Acts 24: 14, 15. God cannot lie. May you find comfort in the possibility of one day seeing your family member.##imported-begin##Marilynn Wright##imported-end##

“ Death is something that we will never get use to because God's Word refers to it as 'the last enemy'. May you find comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father Jehovah promises us that very soon, he will by means of his son Jesus, bring our enemy 'to nothing' (1Corinthians 15:26). What a wonderful day that will be!##imported-begin##Kevin Jackson##imported-end##

“ To my family: My heart felt condolences go out to you all, I'm so sorry that I will not be able to make it home to bid my Grandfather farewell. These are the downsides to moving away from home and I now realize that. I wish all of us the strength to endure these times. You will never be forgotten for you are my father's father. Love Missy
