“ Sometimes, it just doesn't seem real. I find myself getting ready to call or go visit him. But then, I think to myself - this is real because if not, I would have received a call by now. I miss him so. Thank you for the memories daddy.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few find the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32. It is of vital importance to learn what the Bible really teaches concerning death. For more information please visit the website jw.org.

“ Kelly, I am so very sorry for the loss of your dad. Although I did not have the pleasure of knowing your dad, I do have the pleasure of knowing you. He had to have been a very special person to have shared in the raising of such a sweet daughter.

John 11:23-26 Jesus said to her, “Your brother will rise again.” Martha said to him, “I know that he will rise again in the resurrection on the last day.” Jesus said to her, “I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever believes in me, though he die, yet shall he live, and everyone who lives and believes in me shall never die. Do you believe this?”

God bless you and your family. Cry, laugh and remember your very fond memories, I'm sure you have many to share with each other.

“ Our family would like to express condolences to your family. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's Word The Bible. He promises that there will be a resurrection for our dear loved ones. Also, in 1 Corinthians 15:26 He assures us that "the last enemy death will be brought to nothing". Our prayers are with your family.
