

Charles E. Blackwell Jr.

May 7, 1939 - October 3, 2020

CHARLES EDWARD BLACKWELL, JR. was born on May 7, 1939 to the late Priscilla Blackwell-Kelly and the late Charles Edward Blackwell, Sr. He was the eldest of their five sons. He was a member of St. Peter Claver Catholic Church where he completed his sacraments.

Charlie, as he was affectionately known, attended Baltimore City public schools and graduated from Douglass High School in 1957. He attended CCBC and Bobby's Judo Academy, where he received his Black Belt. In addition, he received his Black Belt in Ju-Jitsu from the Towson YMCA.

In 1975 he married Carolyn Doles Blackwell.

Charlie liked being active. He was a co-founder of the Squires Social Club, an avid roller skater (Shake and Bake was one of his favorite spots) and he was a water aerobics instructor at the YMCA. He loved martial arts and taught Judo classes at Blackwell's School of Judo for many years. Cadillacs were his favorite type of car. He was a member of the Cadillac club and participated in many of the annual Cadillac Parades. He enjoyed playing all types of sports but football was his favorite. He was an active member of the Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc.

Charlie was preceded in death by his parents Priscilla and Charles, brother

Robert Blackwell, daughter Yolanda Blackwell Washington and special brother James Thomas.

Charlie is survived by his wife Carolyn Doles Blackwell, his brothers, Leo Blackwell Sr. (Myrna), Wayland Blackwell, Rev. Maurice Blackwell, Dale Blackwell and sisters Wendy Blackwell-Fortune (Melvin), Nancy Blackwell-Allen (Mike) and special sister Beverly Carroll.

To carry on his legacy: his children Charles Blackwell, III (Jessica), Sharon Storti (Edd), Deborah Blackwell, Maria Williams (Mose), Maurice Shuron (Amanda), Michael Johnson (Janet), Paula Harris (Kevin) and Runday Griffin; sixteen grandchildren and six great-grandchildren; his aunts, Virginia Blount, Delores Bess and Grace Wallace; nieces, nephews, cousins and a host of other relatives and friends.
