

Charles Etta Bradford

December 10, 1923 - May 24, 2014

MRS. CHARLES ETTA WEAVER BRADFORD, daughter of the late Loueva and Davis Weaver, was born on December 10, 1923 in Greenwood County, South Carolina. She was one of seven children, John Robert, James and Mozell Weaver, who preceded her in death and sisters Ruth W. Waddell of Wilmington, North Carolina, Naomi Weaver of Greenwood, South Carolina and Janie W. Harrison of Richmond, Virginia. On Saturday, May 24, 2014 at 8:30 pm at the University of Maryland Hospital, God saw that His child had finished all appointed for her to do, welcoming her into His eternal rest. Charles Etta attended school in Greenwood County, South Carolina, and received her degree from Benedict College to teach in the school system of Buford County, South Carolina for 14 years. She united in marriage to the late Spencer Bradford in 1958. God blessed this union with one very special son, Kwame Bradford, whom she loved, provided for, and cared for until she was unable to provide the special care he required. Charles Etta, received her early spiritual guidance from Marshall Chapel Baptist Church, in Greenwood County South, Carolina, and after relocating to Baltimore, Maryland she became a faithful member of Perkins Square Baptist Church where she remained until her health began to fail. Charles Etta leaves to cherish her memory: her son, Kwame; her three sisters, Ruth, Naomi and Janie; some close nieces, Juanita Gordy, Christine Weaver and Anna Ruth Waddell; a host of other family and friends.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 5yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
