

Charles Braxton

November 7, 1948 - November 30, 2020

CHARLES LARRY BRAXTON, affectionately called “Larry”, son of the late Mildred E. Jones and Lealon Pratt, was born in Baltimore City on November 7, 1946. Larry departed this life November 30, 2020.

He received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. Larry joined a fraternity, Sigma Phi Gamma in 1965. He worked a variety of jobs including Sparrows Point, Health Care System, and retired from the public school system.

Larry loved to tell jokes and stories and demonstrated everything he talked about. He was the center of attention everywhere.

He mentored and taught some classes for the young generation.

Larry was a strong black man and everyone came to him for advice. Larry found God in his later years.

Preceded in death: his son, Edgar Braxton; his sisters, Minnie Hilton and Velvet Branch and granddaughter, Ditayah Braxton.

He leaves to mourn: daughters, Devora Braxton-White, Nadra Braxton-Robinson, Kimberly Moore and Lori Braxton; son, Charles Braxton Jr.; sister, Carolyn Morris; brother, Lealon Andre’ Braxton; brother-in-law, Raymond Morris; daughter-in-law, Hiyanna Braxton; son-in-law, Raymond Moore; nine grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren; a host of nieces, nephews, friends, other relatives; and a special friend, Maggie

Duncan.
