

Charles R. Brent

May 14, 1928 - September 24, 2017

Charles Richard Brent was born May 14, 1928 in Cedar Heights, MD to Anne Colston and Benjamin Brent.

He attended Cedar Heights Elementary and Francis L. Cardoza High School. Preceded in death by his parents and siblings: Benjamin Brent, Otis Brent, Annie Brent, Isabel Brent Brown, and Juanita Brent Pulin; Charles was called from labor to reward on Sunday, September 24, 2017.

Charles served in the United States Navy during World War II on the USS Navajo. After the war he joined the Washington, DC Police department. Later he became a U.S. Postal Service Carrier, Taxi Cab driver and then an appraiser at the Department of Housing and Urban Development from where he retired. While retired, Charles opened a successful real estate appraisal business titled "Brent's Appraisal Services". During this time, he began investing in the real estate market, purchasing many properties throughout Maryland.

Charles enjoyed listening to jazz music, going to the gym, running, studying history, watching Westerns which he fondly called "Shoot 'em Ups", traveling, and playing poker. He was a member of the Pope Street Crew which included Carolyn Brown, Shirley Wise and Lois Snowden.

Charles Brent was very charming and always well dressed. He lived life to the fullest and had a wonderful sense of humor. He leaves to cherish his memory: his wife of 29 years, Jean and from their union Melissa, Jessica and Joanne; he is also survived by Margaret Ann McCloud, Toni Brady, Eric Brent, Donna Epps, Steven Brent, Kimberly Brent, ten grandchildren, twelve great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews and a host of extended family and friends.
