“ I would like to express my condolences to the family and friends . Charles was 55 years young when death broke the circle of life for you all. No one knows the feeling of losing a dear loved one until it happen to you. Knowing that others cares help to ease the pain . Imagine the happiness that will result when the dead are resurrected. I am looking forward to that and I know you are too according to the bible at John 5:28, Isa.25:8, death swallowed UP for ever, Great NEWS. Looking back on all the cherish times spent with Charles, may they support you all through life journey .##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. God’s original purpose was not for us to ever die. The thought of death is heartwrenching to us and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to death. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Just imagine our loved one coming back to life in the most beautiful earthly paradise you could ever imagine! Wouldn’t it be wonderful to greet them, tears of joy running down your faces and knowing that you will never lose them in death again. Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at (Rev. 21: 3-5) of a new earth where there will be no more death. These promises have brought comfort to millions. I wish the same for you.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. The bible lets us know that one day soon, a resurrection of the dead will take place. The Apostle Paul said about this at Acts 24:15, "And I have hope towards God that there is going to be a resurrection." May it bring comfort to your hearts to know that one day Charles will open his eyes once again, with the prospect of everlasting life in view. May your wonderful memories of Charles help you to cope with losing him, and may Jehovah's word give you much comfort and strength to see you through.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Dear Tucker Family, I was truly sorry to hear that my friend Tuck as we called him had left to be with the Lord. I know it is never easy to lose a loved one, no matter how strong people may think we are. I've known Tuck all my life, we played ball together, we hung out played and cards in the basement during the summer. I can only remember him being a good guy. He did all the right things, Cecil Ave was a close community and he demonstrated an excellent example for me. He was a young man who respected and listened to his parents, finished school, got a good job and provided for his family. because of how he was raised, I'm quite sure he was a loving husband and father. May God Bless you and keep you during these times, our strength truly comes from God, so if you lean and depend on him, he will see you through this moment in time. God Bless You, Patrick##imported-begin##Patrick Britton##imported-end##
