

Charles H. Campbell

September 25, 1943 - February 19, 2016

Charles H. Campbell (Salahudeen) son of the late Dorothy Garvins and Raymon Murdox was born on September 25, 1943 in Glen Burnie, Maryland. He departed this life on February 19, 2016 after a short illness.

He received his education at Baltimore City Public Schools where he moved on to a career at Johns Hopkins University as an Animal Lab Technician later retiring with many certificates and awards for his job well done.

He married Delores Campbell and out of this union six children, Cynthia, Tyrone, Roslyn, Schenay, Raheem and Lavette were born. Lavette preceded her mother in death.

Charles (Salahudeen) made friends throughout the community and wherever his feet landed. He was known for giving advice, knowledge and wisdom where needed. Everyone knew him as "Sala". He was a mentor to some but a father to most. Sala loved himself some Tupac "All Eyes On Me". Sala was also known for making you smile with a joke. He was definitely the God Father of the Park Heights Community and a devoted family man.

Sala leaves to mourn: his wife, Delores Campbell; two sons, Raheem and Tyrone; three daughters, Cynthia, Roslyn, Schenay; one brother-in-law, three sons-in-law, two daughters-in-law, eighteen grandchildren, twenty-five great-grandchildren, and a host of friends and relatives.

“ No one knows the depth of our pains but our loving heavenly father. He knows and understands the many pains that we bear. Isaiah63:9 He has promised that one day all suffering, pain and death will be gone forever. Rev21:3-4 He reassures us that the dead will live again by means of the resurrection. John5:28-29 What a wonderful time that will be! Until then please know that our loving heavenly father trully cares and loves us all!
