

Charles W. Chapman

May 30, 1948 - June 27, 2016

Charles Wesley Chapman was born on May 30, 1948 to the late Mary Ella Brown Chapman and Charles Chapman in Chesterfield, South Carolina. He transitioned from his earthly home to eternal rest on June 26, 2016.

He accepted God at an early age, and attended the New Zion Baptist Church in Chesterfield, South Carolina.

After graduating from Northwestern High School in Baltimore Maryland, Charles joined the United States Army and served his country with bravery and courage during the Vietnam War.

Charles was a quiet man. He loved his family and friends. He thoroughly enjoyed music, and loved dressing up in suits.

He was employed at Koester's Bakery in downtown Baltimore until it closed, and completed his working tenure at the Loch Raven V.A. Medical Center until he became disabled.

Charles was preceded in death by his sister, Josephine Sikes and his brother, James Calvin (Lessie) Chapman.

He leaves to cherish his memory: a devoted sister, Mary C. (Birdell) Coit of Baltimore, Maryland; nieces, Laretta (Lester) Coit-Turner of Randallstown, Maryland, Catina (Darnell) Winfrey of Germany, Tanya (Robert) Jenkins of Symrna, Delaware, Renee (Johns) of Wise, Delaware; nephews, Vernon Coit of Baltimore, Maryland, John (Stephanie) Carter of Delaware, Joey Carter of Delaware, Charles Cooper of Delaware, Marvin Sikes of Delaware; long time friend and confidant, Larry Powe; and a host of sorrowing family and friends.
