

Charles L. Clark III

June 10, 1974 - January 15, 2024

CHARLES LEE CLARK III, (better known as Cee Cee), son of Charles Lee Clark Jr. and Mary Charine Clark, was born on June 10, 1974 in Towson, MD. Charles departed his life suddenly on Monday, January 15, 2024 due to a long illness.

Charles attended Edmondson High School and studied mechanical engineering which was used later in life.

Charles had a big personality! He was lovable, charming, and protective. Along with his big personality he had a big appetite. Charles loved to eat. One of his favorite dishes was his mother's banana pudding.

Charles began working at the age of 15 years old at Konstants Peanut Stand where he was known as the "peanut man" while being employed at Lexington Market for over 20 years. He loved working with his hands, working on cars, bicycles, and all types of lawn care equipment. His neighborhood loved him and brought items to him that needed fixing.

Charles leaves to cherish his memory: his father, Charles Clark Jr.; mother, Mary Charine Clark; two brothers, Corey Clark and Cornelius Clark Sr.; special nephew and nieces, Cornelius Clark Jr., Logan Clark and Knoell Clark; aunts, Katherine Huntley, Sharon Taylor, Carlita Klutz, Katherine Coates, Elester Carter, Lavern Williams, Vonzella Clark and Ruby Mark; uncles, Christopher Clark, Floyd Carter and Julian "Muss" Robinson; special friend, Nicole Smith; and a host of cousins, other relatives and friends.

“ I was told a story about how he would fill the bags of peanuts to the top of the bag back to the top for alumni of edmondson. I'm gonna miss my guy!! he was my go to guy to fix all of my equipment for my business! but more importantly how we used to break break bread in the back yard with OG Charlie Sr. those great laughs and convo will be sorely missed!!

Sincerely with love,

“ Our hearts are heavy this morning knowing what you all are going through and missing your loving son. However we know now that Charlie is in a better and happier place. God opened his heavenly gates and said come in my son your home now. May God continue to give Mom and Dad and Charlies brothers the strength they need to get through this very sorrow time In Jesus Name We Pray Amen. With love Pat Mimi and Levi
