“ Dear Granddaddy,

I wish I could've gotten to know you better. I'll never forget that day I walked in you and Grandmas house on Cherry Hill. You were all like HEEEEYYYY. Priceless..... Grandma still plays those old records that remind her of you. She still hasn't moved on but hey, life is a gift and you have to move through it with passion. My Dad always tells me how you were such a cool dude. He says anybody would come and talk to you about anything. He said you had no enemies. You went to soon GrandDaddy. I hope you're resting good up there. Please guide me to do the right thing and send me wisdom because I can be naive. I hope you're at peace. Till this very day I knew it would've been great to know you. Save me a spot up there I love you Granddaddy ❤️❤️❤️.

*Love Your GrandDaughter,
Tajai Alera Conigland,*

“ I am so sorry to hear of the death of Mr. Charles. When I lose a loved one in death I turn to the scriptures for comfort where Almighty God Jehovah tells us that there will be a resurrection found at Acts 24:15. Also he promises that he will soon swallow up death forever and wipe all tears of sorrow away at Isa 25:8. May these scriptures provide you also with the strength and comfort needed to deal with your loss.##imported-begin##T.Taylor##imported-end##
